Spring Issue

March 2012

Regional Meeting
Concordia University
Portland, Oregon
May 11-13, 2012

Concordia is a private, Christian, liberal arts university open to students of any faith. Nestled in the Pacific Northwest, Concordia University is committed to the dual purpose of preparing students for life and for a living. Concordia provides a challenging, yet supportive learning environment where spirited intellectual inquiry strengthens our commitment to justice, compassion and moral integrity. We respect diversity, and integrate faith into every aspect of learning, service and life. Concordia is one of 10 universities founded by the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, and the only LCMS university in Oregon. We have been an integral part of the Pacific Northwest since 1905. Concordia is a Christian university that welcomes students from all faiths. Approximately 2,500 students attend the university. For a map with directions to Concordia, see <http://www.cu-portland.edu/aboutcu/maps.cfm>. Parking on campus is free.

REGISTRATION

Registration will take place at the Oxford Abstracts website beginning March 15, 2012. A link to the registration site at Oxford Abstracts will be available on our website by March 15 (click on the tab "Registration"). Here you may register for the conference as well as purchase tickets for the Friday night buffet (prior to the Presidential Address), Saturday lunch, and Saturday night banquet. Vegetarian options are available for all meals; please be sure to indicate this when you purchase a meal ticket. If your spouse/partner will be attending, he/she must complete a separate registration.

HOUSING

We have two options for housing this year. Both are close to Concordia University and the Portland Airport. The rate at each hotel is $72.00 per night. You must phone the hotel directly to make your reservation. A map with directions from the hotels to Concordia will be posted on our website. These will also be available at the hotel when you check in. The hotels are 5.8 miles from Concordia (13 minutes). Parking on campus is free.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

The preliminary program will be available March 15, 2012 on-line on our website. Simply click on the "Program" tab at <http://pnw-aarsbl.org/>

You may have to copy and paste this url into your web browser.

FUTURE MEETINGS

Right now we are negotiating with the University of Washington in Seattle, Washington for a possible meeting date of May 10-12, 2013. There are financial concerns that will be discussed at our Business Meeting in May. This is not a firm commitment, so if you and your institution would be willing to host a regional meeting, please contact Ardy Bass, Executive Secretary; bassa@gonzaga.edu as soon as possible. Thank you!

In 2014 we should meet somewhere in Canada.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

New This Year!! Food on Friday Night!

Concordia's beautiful campus is nestled in a Portland neighborhood with few dining choices close by. So this year we are offering tickets for a Friday night buffet prior to the Presidential Address. Everything will take place in the same building (church, actually), so please plan to come to the buffet followed by the Presidential Address and Reception. You may purchase tickets for the buffet when you register for the conference. Additionally, the Study of Islam program unit is offering a screening of a documentary following the Reception (see information below).

Presidential Address on Friday Evening

Please plan on joining us for the Presidential Address given by President Heidi M. Szpek, Department of Philosophy & Religious Studies at Central Washington University. The title of her talk is "The Jewish Epitaph Reconsidered: Towards Reversing a Century of Condemnation."

Saturday Evening Banquet Address

Our Banquet Address will be given by Gerardo Marti, L. Richardson King Associate Professor of Sociology at Davidson College. His latest book, Worship across the Racial Divide: Religious Music and the Multiracial Congregation (Oxford University Press, 2012), demonstrates how ideas of race and ethnicity affect liturgy as cultural practice, especially through religious ritual inclusion of "conspicuous color."

Saturday Morning Plenary Speaker

The Venerable Geshe Thupten Phelgye, Member of Tibetan Parliament in Exile, will deliver the plenary address on Saturday morning at 11 am. Geshe is currently Global Scholar in Residence at Gonzaga University. Please visit his website for more information: <http://www.universalcompassion.org/geshe-thupten-phelgye/>

The Study of Islam section of the PNW-AAR plans at the Spring 2012 meeting in Portland to begin a tradition of screening films on and/or by Muslims during each of our regional annual meetings. Each year, a different member of the section will choose one or two films to be shown and to lead a brief discussion. In the choice of films, special emphasis will be placed on films deemed of particular pedagogical value.

For the Spring 2012 meeting, Rick Colby of the University of Oregon will present a pair of films for viewing and discussion, one a feature film and one a documentary.

The first film to be screened at the Spring 2012 meeting, on Friday afternoon from 3:00-5:30 PM, will be a feature film entitled "The Lizard" (Marmoulak), a critically acclaimed Iranian comedy-drama directed by Kamal Tabrizi. "The Lizard" tells the story of an atheist and convicted thief from Tehran who escapes prison by wearing the garb of a religious leader and finds himself embraced as the imam of a small Iranian village.

The second, to be screened Friday evening from 9:30-11:00 PM, is a 52-minute documentary called "Me and the Mosque," by Canadian filmmaker Zarqa Nawaz. It charts Nawaz's personal research into the rise of barriers and partitions that contemporary Muslim women increasingly face in public prayer spaces across North America.

All are welcome to attend and we hope that you will join us in Portland to inaugurate this new annual tradition.

CONGRATULATIONS to
Andrew Davis, Seattle University
SBL Regional Scholar 2012:

Mixed Blessings in the Book of Ruth

SNAIL MAIL AND EMAIL ADDRESSES

The region does not keep its own list of snail mail and email addresses. We obtain them from our respective national offices. If you or someone you know is a member of AAR, SBL, and/or ASOR but do/does not receive notices by snail mail or email from the region that is because your/her/his addresses are not up-to-date in the respective national office. Please, forward this email on to them and have them contact the organization to make the appropriate corrections.

American Academy of Religion REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

Have you considered applying for a 2012–2013 Regional Development Grant? Regional Development Grants provide funds for special projects within the regions that promise to benefit the scholarly and professional life of AAR members and do the work of the AAR in the regions. Workshops, special programs, training events, and other innovative regional projects may be funded through this source. Where possible, projects are designed so that they may be duplicated or transported to other regions.

Applications should include a narrative description of the project detailing how the project promises to benefit the scholarly and professional life of AAR members and the work of the region. Please include comments on how these projects or activities may be adapted to other regional groups. The application should state the time period covered by the project and provide a detailed budget (office expenses, travel expenses, honoraria, stipend, and other expenses). Institutional overhead costs should not be included in this budget. No grant will exceed $4,000.

Successful grants from prior years can be found here. Application deadline is August 1.

SBL REGIONAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

SBL members presenting a paper at the meeting may wish to be considered for the Regional Scholars Program. To qualify as a candidate for this award, the applicant must be either ABD or no more than 4 years past receipt of the Ph.D.

Applicants should inform Ardy Bass, SBL Regional Coordinator, at least two weeks prior to the meeting that he or she intends to apply for the award. The applicant must present a paper at the SBL regional meeting, and then submit the paper and a complete CV (both in electronic and hard copy) to the Regional Coordinator after the meeting.

If selected as a winner by the National Society's Regional Scholar Award Selection Committee, the winner receives $1,000 in support of attendance at the Annual SBL Meeting, and will be honored at the Regional Scholars Dinner at the Annual Meeting. The winner is also strongly encouraged to submit a proposal to the Annual Meeting in the year following his or her selection.

For more information, contact Ardy Bass (bassa@gonzaga.edu).
